THE SEARCH by Shel Silverstein
I went to find the pot of gold
That's waiting where the rainbow ends.
I searched and searched and searched and searched
And searched and searched, and then -
There it was, deep in the grass,
Under an old and twisty bough.
It's mine, it's mine, it's mine at last...
What do I search for now?

You made it Alex.."No Sweat"...Congratulations!
Mom, Dad and Hilary

"Congratulations Mark"

Love, Mom, Dad &Mindy

Listen to the Exhortation of the Dawn!
For it is Life, the very Life of Life.
In its brief course lie all the Verities
and Realities of your existence:
The Bliss of Growth,
The Glory of Action,
The Splendour of Beauty.
For Yesterday is but a Dream,
And Tomorrow is only a Vision;
For Today well-lived makes every
Yesterday a Dream of Happiness
And every Tomorrow a Vision of Hope.
Look well Therefore to this Day!
Such is the Salutation of the Dawn.

(Sanskrit)

To Jedd and all his friends, congratulations and good luck!

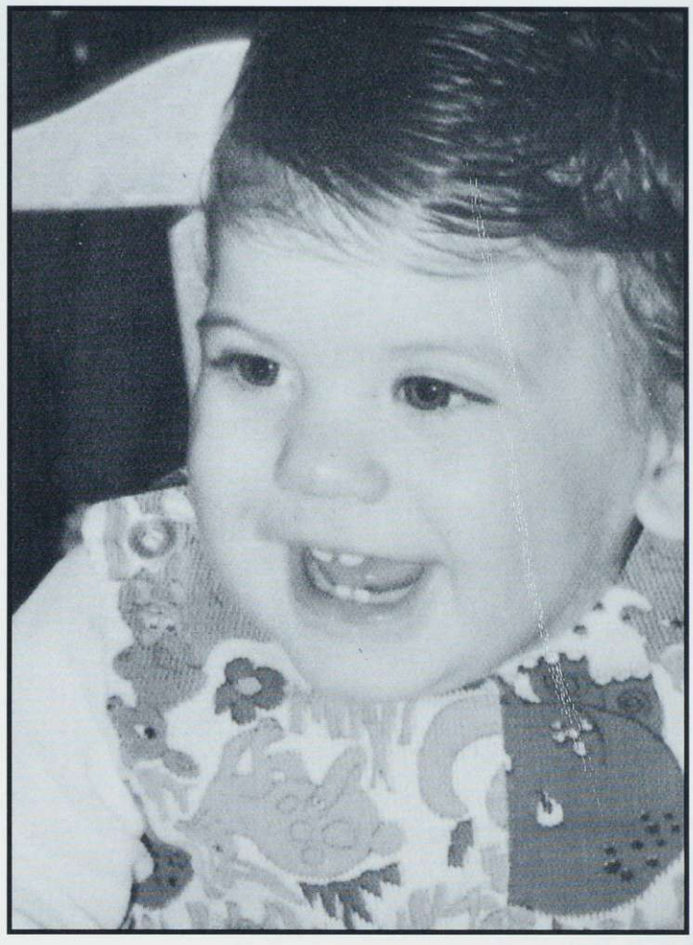
One of the greatest gifts a son can give his parents is the knowledge that he has become a throughly good person and a responsible, contributing adult member of society.

Thank you for that gift, Chris.

We're so proud of you,
and we love you very much.

Mom and Dad



Dear Anthony,

You are such an outstanding person and we hope that nothing will ever change you. With your positive attitude and outlook, you will see the good in everything and this will reflect back to you. We love you so very much and are proud of your accomplishments.

from Song of Myself (section 26)
I think I will do nothing for a long time but listen,
And accrue what I hear into myself...and let sounds contribute toward me.
I hear the bravuras of birds...the bustle of growing wheat...gossip of flames...clack of sticks cooking my meals.
I hear the sound of the human voice...a sound I love,
I hear all the sounds as they are tuned to their uses...sounds of the city and songs out of the city...sounds of the day and night;
Walt Whitman

Congratulations on your well-earned successes. We are very proud of you and wish you much happiness, love, and joy.

IT'S BEEN A WONDERFUL TRIP. MAY YOU RISE UP ON WINGS LIKE AN EAGLE. MAY YOU RUN AND NOT BE WEARY. MAY YOU WALK AND NOT BE FAINT.

LOVE,
MOM, DAD & THE REST OF TEAM RAWSTRON

Yesterday, a child came out to wonder,
and caught a dragonfly inside a jar.
And fearful when the skies were full of thunder,
and tearful at the falling of a star.

And the seasons, they go round and round.
Painted ponies go up and down.
We're kept upon the carousel of time.
We can't return, we can only look,
Behind from where we came,
And go round and round,
In the circle game.

...And so the child who dreams,
tomorrow now is twenty,
Those dreams have lost some grandeur coming true,
There'll be new dreams,
Maybe better dreams and plenty,
Before the last revolving year is through.

-Joni Mitchell, "Circle Game"

Congratulations to Sarah,

"Be patient toward all that is unsolved in your heart and try to love the questions themselves. Do not seek the answers, which cannot be given you because you would not be able to live them. And the point is to live everything. Live the questions now. Perhaps you will then gradually, without noticing it, live along some distant day into the answers."

-Rainer Maria Rilke, "Letter to a Young Poet"

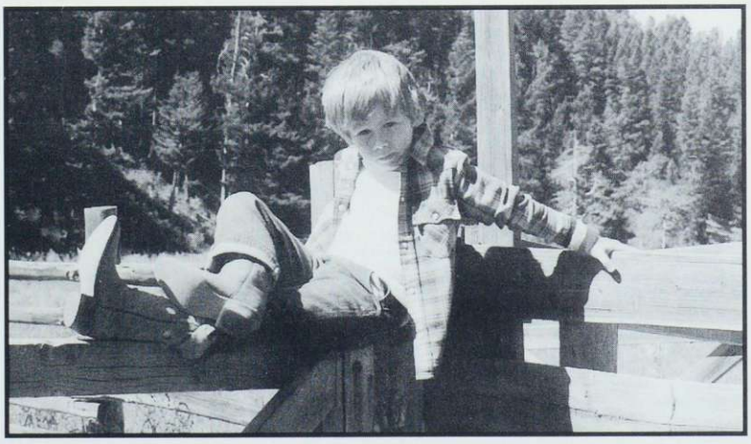
We are all very proud of you and cannot wait for the next chapter!!

Your grace, skiing in the graduation procession this January, was a bit different than the way you looked at 3 years old. Amazing what 20 years of practice can do!

Little did we imagine that your playing with a toy guitar at the disco would result in a music minor, three CD's of your own music, "Sex, Drugs, Rock & Roll," and a "beast" on the drums.

Your bonding with Hercules was an early sign of your ability to charm the cows. Those girls will follow you anywhere!

Your namesake, Justice Tom Clark, was a prosecutor and would have been proud of your performance in "Execution of Justice."



You have accomplished so much, and yet, you have always kept your cool.

Love: Goose & Freeman, Ida, Crispin, Cass & Ryan, Big Mommy, Granny & Grandpa Weger

CONGRATULATIONS CHRISTINA!

"What is that feeling when you're driving away from people and they recede on the plain till you see their specks dispersing?- it's the too-huge world vaulting us, and it's good-bye. But we lean forward to the next crazy venture beneath the skies."

-Jack Kerouac, On The Road

Mickey and I say: There's nothing "Mickey Mouse" about C. BRADFORD SCOTT Middlebury 2000!!!

CONGRATULATIONS, BRAD! I cannot believe my ergo beautiful baby boy is now a college graduate! With your quiet, assured individualism, advanced thought, and keen sense of humor, you have always been a wonderful son. You have been as much the teacher as the taught; more the artist than the common; and always a happy joy, never a worry (for the most part!)

You inspire much pride as I know how hard you have worked for this accomplishment as well as to share yourself under difficult circumstances with all those who love you. Forever thankful will I be for all the time which you have afforded to me in the path of your life leading to this admirable acheivement, among your many, and for the opportunity and Honor of raising you "fulltime". I will always love you "more than the sun and the moon and the whole wide world" wherever it is that I will be and you will go!

Now, on your very special day, the Angels place this whole wide World in your hands and gladly sing: The world is finally yours, Brad, and it only keeps getting better if you use it wisely! May you always be wealthy in health and right choices with astute decisions. May you also appreciate and discern the sincerely meaningful from the flaunting material and vacuously tempting (in balance, of course, with the necessary work/career, whatever you choose!)
May you also be rich in fulfilling endeavors, love, Family, warmth of soul, kindness, philanthropy, creativity, unswerving Morality among Men and Nature, perseverance to be more than those you perceive as lacking and the same steadfast courage you have already shown within life's valleys, of which I will always pray yours will be fewer...and HAVE FUN!!! There is such an aura and panorama of stars now around and before you, all waiting to be yours, shining. Some may glitter fancy, but the brightest one to touch will be the one that just lets you be yourself, safe, and happy!

Love, always, Mom...

P.S. Sorry about the picture, but it has always been a favorite.

BEN,

Who could have ever imagined in 1978 when you were 18 months old, during a trip through New England, that you would sit, 21 years later, in the same gazebo in Middlebury after graduating from Middlebury College in the year 2000.

We couldn't be more proud of you, Trianna. God bless you always.

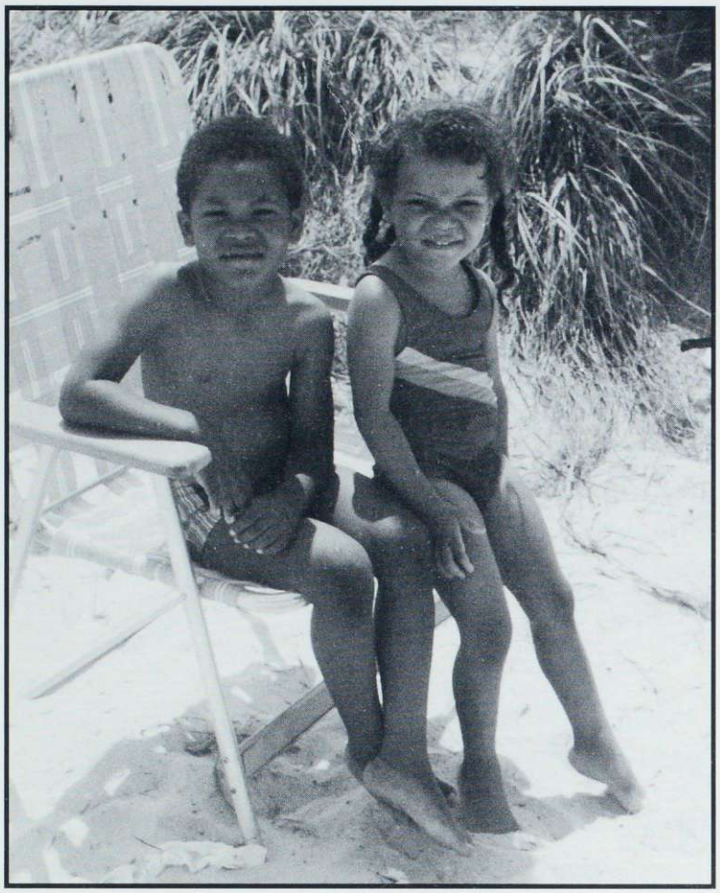
OH YEA!
2000



Dear Farah,

Give thanks to God and praise him with all your heart. You have successfully completed the first chapter of adulthood. Now that you are entering the real world, I want you to remeber these:

Be humble and don't turn away from those in despair and in need.
Neither judge nor condemn anyone.
Always go forward. Don't dwell on the past and forgive those who hurt you.
Focus on your goals. Be a positive thinker; leave it all to the Lord while you are working on it.
Never give up. Be persistent and don't be afraid of failure. Success comes to those who persevere.
Above all else, believe in the power of prayer and trust yourself.
Always remember that you are loved - no matter what.

Congratulations to you and your friends.

Love,
Mom

I would like to thank Peter Huoppi and David Barreda for most of the photographs in this book. Likewise, Josh Nothwang and the Campus photography staff could not have been more helpful. Moreover, to all the athletic coaches and team captians who contributed photos, thank you for your help! Sarah LeFeber, thanks for all the great nature shots!

So many people helped to make this book possible that I will undoubtedly leave someone out. However, here it goes anyway...

Without my housemates from both Turner and The Depot, this yearbook would not exist. Thank you Niko, Celeste, Christine, Nick, Josh, and of course Lindsay. You guys are the best. Hopefully this yearbook finds us all still together causing trouble across the nation! Katy, Kat and Claire thank you so much for helping me during the final stages of this book(i.e. thanks for letting me live at your place!).

Thank you Megan Smith, Student Activities Guru! It was a little shaky for both of us at the start...but I think that we'll both remember this Yearbook for many years to come.

Last, but not least, I would like to leave my fellow classmates with a little something from the heart...I know that we don't all even know each other. However, I also know that Middlebury College has been an excellent four years...or more than that...

What I really want to say can best be said by someone else, Ferris Beuller:

"Life moves pretty fast...if you don't stop and look around every once in awhile, you could miss it."

So now that we are no longer at Middlebury, or any school for that matter, we are officially in the real world.

Start living and stop preparing.
